

Ring Ring! Hello! It's The Guys!

Written and Illustrated by Grandma Woof (aka Cathy Osman)

Ring.....Ring

Good Morning! Whats for breakfast? Oatmeal, banana banana bananas, toast. YUM.

What?

You want to see the Guys? Ok

Where shall we go first? Lets walk across the living room to the long shelf over the wood stove.

Abe Lincoln. What a thoughtful fellow. He stands so tall and straight, with a black coat, black beard and black hair too. He lived a long time ago.

There it is, a green tractor.

I see smoke coming out of the pipe, the wheels look like they could go around but we have a problem. What is the problem?

No one to drive the tractor.

Lets just get that Guy out of the blue box. He could drive the tractor right off of this shelf.

Hey Guy, Why is your hat hanging sideways?
You are made of wood.
Do you want to get off
the shelf ? Maybe you need some help. Lets
ask around.

Please, wise man
with the whiskers,
can you help us get off this shelf. We want to go
exploring?

Ready, Set GO!!

The Guy in the speed
boat zoomed right by.
STOP. Is the hand alive? Quick grab the little fish from the big fishes mouth. We can work together to get off of this shelf.

The skeleton lady with the big hat has an idea. Let's use the ladders to climb down and walk around. Come on.

Whats that high
on the wall?
A giant green
frog face. Does
she worry you?
Sneak by slowly.

Right next to frog
face is dog face.
I think we can trust
the dog face to not
jump off the wall
and get us!

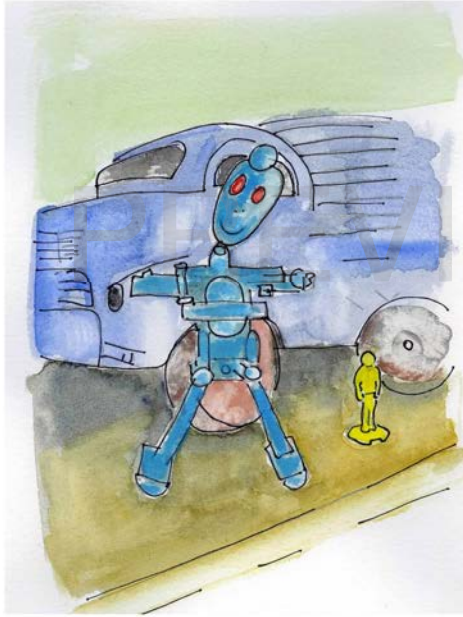

You look grumpy.
Do you want to hang up? We can talk again
tomorrow.
Bye Bye

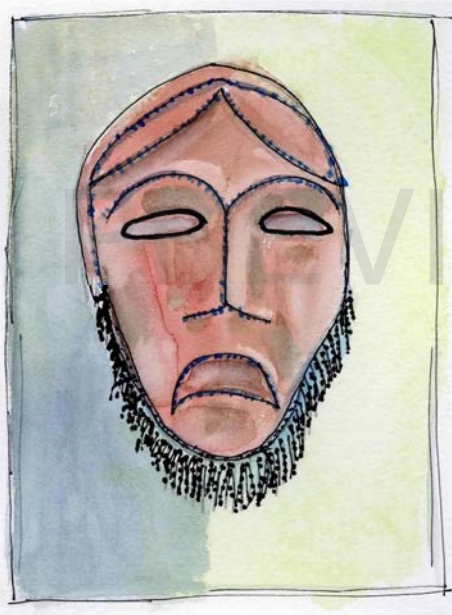

Ring Ring Ring.....

Good Morning, what's
for breakfast? Raisin
toast, eggies, what else. Strawberries. Oh
you want to see the guys. Ok. Where shall we go this time?

There is the Blue Robot. He loves to dance. Wiggle Wiggle
Whomp Whomp. Blue
Robot lives on the shelf
with the White Horse,
a very small yellow guy
and a blue truck. Are you ready to go?

There is Sad
man.. It's ok.
We are thinking
about getting
down off of our shelves. Little Baby do you
want to come?

PREVIEW

I've got a horse and many friends. Let's find them.

Hurray! Let's Go.
WHERE?

We have a strong man
and wolves can be very crafty and sometimes
have good ideas.
A tiger. The tiger has a rope and with the help
of the ballerina he could lower the rope. It might be a little scary
to climb down.

Wise person, how do we get down? The wise person has very large eyes and will look around for us.

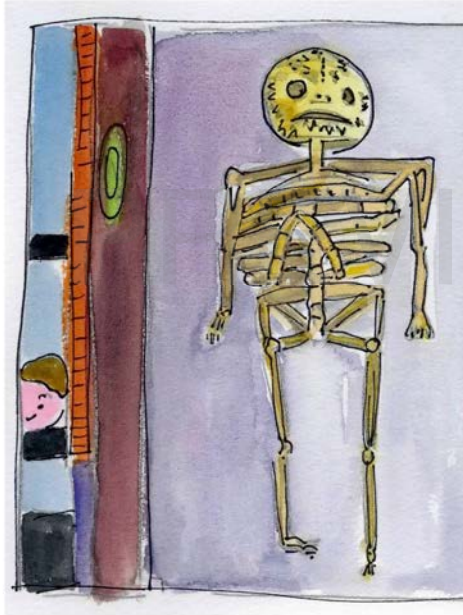

There is an airplane with Batman. We need a pilot. This very Blue Guy looks like he could fly the plane.
Climb aboard everyone!

Aha, more Guys! One chicken bobbly head guy, one owl bobbly head guy and one duck. They all have feathers and can fly. Lets go. One more room to look in.

A pig with a chef hat.
And a butterfly in a
box.

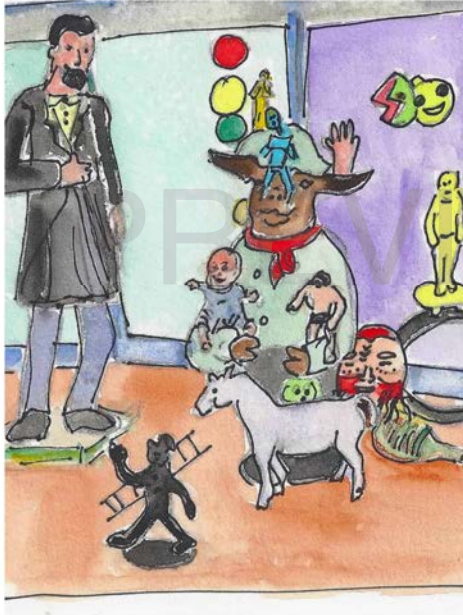

Sorry!

We almost forgot the
doll with the pink
cheeks and the
skeleton made of straw. Who is left?

The long legged family with red stockings!

PARTY!

Did you hear something.
Who is coming? The man with the orange cap. He wants us to stay on the shelf. Why? Because there is a little girl who loves to visit us every morning and she would miss us if we went away.

A little bit sad.

Don't worry! The Guys are right where they should be. You will see them soon.

Here they are. Waiting for a new adventure.
